Job Description: Student for Clinical Database Analysis

Intro:
Bluewind is a startup company located in Herzelia Pituach. It develops micro implantable neurostimulators system which is indicated for aid in management of overactive bladder symptoms in home setting. The treatment is achieved by an electrical stimulation of peripheral nerve fibers.

Scope of work:
The scope of work includes (but not limited to) analysis of data accumulated during the system clinical trials and characterization of the factors that influence system effectiveness in order to optimize system usage and improve the system's next generation.

Qualifications/Requirements:
1. Outstanding 3rd / 4th year undergraduate Computer Science / Physics / Mathematics student
2. Familiarity with SW programming, e.g. MATLAB
3. Willing to work on a part time basis (~2 days per week)
4. Has good interpersonal and communication skills
5. Fast learner and willing to learn

Contact info: Efrat@bluewindmedical.com