

The Rhodes Scholarship for Israel

The Rhodes Trust is thrilled to re-open applications for the two new Rhodes Scholarships for Israeli citizens - fully funded graduate studies at the University of Oxford.

Since their establishment in 1903, the Rhodes Scholarships have convened a global community of extraordinary people who share a history of pioneering in their chosen fields and applying the experience acquired as Rhodes Scholars to the betterment of society. Rhodes Scholar alumni include many heads of state, including former US President Bill Clinton, several Nobel Prize winners, entrepreneurs, journalists, activists, and leading jurists around the globe.
